
Cub Scout Roundtable

On-Line

Monthly Ceremony Feature

Cub Scout Scout Attitude Opening Ceremony

This ceremony is intended to be conducted as an opening ceremony for a Pack Meeting. It highlights the importance of Positive Attitude in achieving success. It uses the examples of some famous Scouts in the history of our Country. This ceremony is intended to be conducted by the Cub Scouts of the Pack.

Cub Scout Leader: There is no limit to the Power of Positive Scouting Attitude.

Cub Scout 1: One former Scout became a Home Run King
- Henry Aaron

Cub Scout 2: One former Scout became Chief of the FBI
- William Sessions

Cub Scout 3: One former Scout became a self-made billionaire
- H. Ross Perot

Cub Scout 4: One former Scout became the founder of the largest retail chain in the world - Sam Walton of WalMart

Cub Scout 5: One former Scout became known for his "Dirty Jobs"
- Mike Rowe

Cub Scout 6: One former Scout became known for his ability to keep cool under pressure - Jim Lovell of Apollo 13

Cub Scout 7: One former Scout became the first man to walk on the Moon
- Neil Armstrong

Cub Scout 8: One former Scout even became President of the United States
- Gerald Ford

All Cub Scouts: (read together by all Cub Scouts presenting the ceremony)
The one thing that they all had in common
- A Positive Cub Scout Attitude!

Cub Scout Leader: Please join us in showing Positive Scouting Attitude while saluting our flag, and joining us in the Cub Scout Promise.