Hockey

Beltloop and Pin Worksheet
Cub Scout Academic & Sports Program

Scout Name: _____

Pack / Den: _____

Hockey Belt Loop

Complete these three requirements:

☐   1. Explain ways to protect yourself while skating. Demonstrate how to put on all necessary safety equipment. Explain why proper safety equipment is important

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

☐   2. Spend 30 minutes practicing the skills of hockey: skating, stick handling, passing, shooting, and checking. This may be over two different practice periods.

_____
_____

☐   3. Play a game of hockey while on roller skates or hockey skates

_____
_____
_____

The Hockey Beltloop and Pin include roller hockey and ice hockey. A Cub Scout may complete requirements in either or both activities.

Hockey Pin

Earn the Hockey Beltloop, and complete five of the following requirements:

☐ 1. Participate in a Pack, school, or community hockey tournament or in a supervised hockey league. _____

_____

☐ 2. Participate in a hockey skills development clinic. _____

_____

☐ 3. Spend at least 30 minutes practicing the skills of hockey: skating, stick handling, passing, shooting, and checking. This may be over two different practice periods.

_____
_____

☐ 4. Draw the layout of the playing surface for a hockey game including the starting positions of the goalie, three forwards (two wings and a center), and two defenders.

☐ 5. Demonstrate foul signals. Explain to your Den or team why players should avoid fouls. _____

_____
_____
_____

□ 6. Attend a high school, college, or professional hockey game. _____
_____

□ 7. Demonstrate hockey terms (for example, assist, breakaway, deke, draw, pulling the goalie, and so on.) to another team member or adult. ___
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

□ 8. Learn about a U.S. Olympic hockey team and report what you learn to your Den, Patrol, or family. _____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

□ 9. Watch an ice resurfacing machine at an ice rink. Report to your Den, Patrol or family about the history of the machine commonly known as the Zamboni and how it is used . _____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

The Hockey Beltloop and Pin include roller hockey and ice hockey. A Cub Scout may complete requirements in either or both activities.